HOW TO USE THIS WORDING

Policy terms and conditions can be confusing. We have endeavoured to make it easier by explaining how to use this booklet and where you can find the information you need.

“Knowing what you are and aren’t covered for is essential to any insurance policy or quotation”

Dan Rose Cert CII, Event Insurance Service, Company Director

Your Documents

This document should be read in conjunction with two others which you have received with your policy or quotation. These documents form the basis of the contract of the policy. These documents are:

- Your Policy Certificate or Your Quotation,
- Your Statement of Fact

Your Policy Certificate or Your Quote will provide you with important information; it will tell you who we are covering and which of our protections you have taken out, and how much you are covered up to in the event of a claim.

When looking at the policy terms and conditions it is important that you check the quote or certificate, so you know which sections you need to read and refer to

For example: If you have only taken out Public Liability, you only need to refer to Section 1 – Public Liability, and not the other Sections of cover...

Your Statement of Fact is your copy of the information you have declared to us. It is this information which we have based our decision to provide you with the insurance or a quotation. It is vital that you make sure the information contained within this document is correct.

Important Words

In insurance, words or phrases can have special, specific meanings. If something has a special meaning, it is usually because it differs from that of a standard dictionary definition.

These words we highlight in bold and have their meanings explained in a glossary, or in some form of help text. The list of special words which we have put together can be found on page 7. Important definitions can affect your policy.

Dangerous Activities – Within our policies, there are certain activities which we have decided are ‘dangerous’ and not covered under our policy. In our section on Definitions we list out these activities to avoid any confusion, so you know what activities we do and don’t cover.

Where to find what you’re covered for...

When looking at your documents it is important to make sure you know which sections of the wording you need to read.

We have split out our cover into 'Sections'. You could take out a single section of cover, for example, Public Liability, or you could take out Public Liability, Employers Liability, Equipment cover, and Cancellation cover all together.

Each of these sections have their own set of exclusions; which are not covered. This can be an activity at an event like a Bouncy Castle, or a cause of a claim for example damage from Vandalism.

Also included within each section, are any extensions which we may be offering, such as Indemnity to Principal which you may have been asked to make sure is included by your venue or local authority.

In addition to each Sections' individual exclusions, there are certain things which we don't cover that apply to the whole policy such as War. If something is damaged, a person injured, or an event is cancelled because of War it is not something we cover. These are known as General Exclusions

Our policy document lays out our General Exclusions in their own 'chapter' before you get down to the ins and outs of each individual section.

What to do if you need to claim

If you experience an incident at your event causing you to have to claim under a liability or property section, or your event is jeopardised and needs to be cancelled you need to know what to do to make a claim.

Our claims chapter outlines what you need to do, what information you need to provide us and what our responsibilities are. Common things to be aware of are:

- Time frames - how long you must report a claim to us.
- Salvage - Our right to see or take ownership items involved in a claim.
- Evidence – All claims require a degree of evidence to ensure that the claim is honest and covered under the terms of the policy.

It is always worth reading this so you are prepared should you need to use the policy.

The last thing to be aware of is that we do need to be notified of any incident which takes place and could give rise to a claim in the future. As an example, someone can try to claim against public liability for a bodily injury for up to three years after the event. Not telling us about incidents or problems could affect your position should a claim eventually be made.

Conditions of cover

In the same way there are conditions when it comes to making a claim i.e. what you need to do in the event of a claim; there are also conditions which apply to the purchase of the policy and what you should do leading up to the event.

These are things like:

- What to do if you need to cancel the insurance.
- Informing us of any changes to the event.
- Explain what basic precautions you need to take when managing the events
 - Making sure you prepare and tidy up the venue,
 - Supervise and train your Volunteers, Helpers and Employees,
 - Comply with any manufactures guidelines and instructions of equipment,

- Run the event in line with all 'regulatory' requirements such as health and safety procedures.

By taking out the policy, you are agreeing to these conditions, so do make sure you read and understand them. If there are ever any elements of these conditions (known as General Conditions) or the Claim Conditions which you don't understand, do let us know and we can explain them to you.

Regulatory Information

As an authorised and regulated company, we must provide you with details about our regulation, who we are, our contact details and what to do if you are not happy with the coverage in the event of a claim. This information is detailed at the end of the policy document.

What you should do next...

We strongly recommend that You read this Policy and keep it in a safe place.

Your Policy and certificate should be read carefully to ensure that it meets Your requirements. You must take care to provide Us with accurate information which is correct to the best of Your knowledge. Please check all the Policy details carefully, these set out the information You have given Us.

If You think there is a mistake, or You need to make changes, You should notify Us immediately. Failure to provide correct information or inform Us of any changes could adversely affect Your Policy, including invalidating Your Policy or causing claims to be rejected or not fully paid.

It is also Your responsibility to ensure that this Policy satisfies the requirements of the Venue(s) or local council, if applicable.

If, after reading this Policy, this insurance does not meet Your requirements, please return this Policy and Your certificate to Event Insurance Services Ltd within fourteen days of the date of issue, before the Event Date and providing no claim has been made. Your premium will then be refunded in full. No refund of any part of the premium can be made after the expiry of the 14-day cooling off period.

IMPORTANT DEFINITIONS

The indemnity provided is deemed to be in accordance with the provisions of any law relating to compulsory insurance of liability to Employees in Great Britain, Northern Ireland, The Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.

For example, the property You are responsible for is worth £20,000. You choose to insure it for £10,000. You suffer a loss of £5,000. Your Policy will be 'subject to average', meaning the maximum amount that You may recover will be £2,500, less any excess.

We will not reduce or increase the level of cover, or the premium charged for this section after We, or at point of paying a claim.

It is Your responsibility to adequately cover yourself prior to the commencement of the Event.

Settling Claims

Following Insured damage, We will indemnify You by payment, repair or replacement at Our choice.

Payment will be based upon the value of the Event Equipment at the time of loss or damage.

The maximum We will pay for any one item is £2,000 unless otherwise agreed by us. If a single item limit of over £2,000 is agreed by us, this will be shown on your Policy Certificate.

The most We will pay for any claim is the Limit of Indemnity stated against section 3 in the certificate.

Where Our investigations provide evidence of fraud or a serious non-disclosure, We may cancel the policy immediately and backdate the cancellation to the date of the fraud or the date when You provided Us with incomplete or inaccurate information, which may result in Your policy being cancelled from the date You originally took it out.

If We cancel the Policy and/or any additional covers You will receive a refund of any premiums You have paid for the cancelled cover, less a proportionate deduction for the time We have provided cover, unless the reason for cancellation is fraud and/or misrepresentation We are entitled to keep the premium under the Consumer Insurance (Disclosure and Representations) Act 2012 or the Insurance Act 2015.

Choice of Law

Unless some other law is agreed in writing, English law governs this Policy. If there is a dispute, it will only be dealt with in the courts of England or of the country within the United Kingdom in which Your address provided on the Statement of Fact is situated.

Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

A person or company who is not a party to this Policy has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Policy but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act.

Claims Enquiries

You must take reasonable care to:

- A. supply accurate and complete answers to all the questions Your agent may ask as part of Your application for cover under the policy
- B. to make sure that all information supplied as part of Your application for cover is true and correct
- C. tell Your agent of any changes to the answers You have given as soon as possible.

You must take reasonable care to provide information that is accurate and complete answers to the questions We ask when You take out, make changes to, and renew Your policy. If any information You provide is not accurate and complete, this may mean Your policy is invalid and that it does not operate in the event of a claim or We may not pay any claim in full.

If You become aware that information You have given Your agent is inaccurate or has changed, You must inform them as soon as possible.

Fraud and Fraudulent Claims

You must not act in a fraudulent way. If You or anyone acting for you:

- G. If Your claim is in any way dishonest or exaggerated,

We will not pay any benefit under this policy or return any premium to You and We may cancel Your Policy immediately and backdate the cancellation to the date of the fraudulent claim. We may also take legal action against You and inform the appropriate authorities.

Conditions precedent

Every condition precedent to which this Policy or any section or item thereof is, or may be, made subject shall, from the time the condition precedent attaches, apply and continue to be in force during the whole currency of this Policy. Non-compliance with any such condition precedent shall be a bar to any claim under the relevant section(s) of this Policy, where the subject matter of the claim was caused by the non-compliance or to the extent that the non-compliance increased it.

Subrogation

On receipt of a notification of a claim, We may do the following:

- a) Enter any building following loss or damage
- b) Negotiate, defend, or settle any claim made against You

Other insurances

If You have any other insurance which covers the same loss, damage or liability, We will only pay Our proportionate share of any claim.

Arbitration

A dispute between You and Us may arise, which may be referred to an arbitrator, who shall be either a solicitor or a barrister who You and We agree on in writing. If an arbitrator cannot be agreed then an arbitrator will be appointed by the authorised body identified in the current arbitration legislation. The decision of the arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties and he or she will decide who should pay the costs of the arbitration. If costs are awarded against You, they are not covered under this policy. This arbitration condition does not affect Your rights to take separate legal action.

If a disputed claim is not referred to arbitration within 12 months of Your claim being turned down, We will treat the claim as abandoned.

Partially damaged items

At Our discretion, in the event an item or piece of property is only partially damaged We will look to cover the costs of the damaged aspects only, rather than cover the full replacement cost. If the damage is severe enough that the item cannot be salvaged, repaired and used, We will cover the complete loss. It is Your responsibility to attempt to salvage, repair and use the damaged item where possible.

Here is an example of how we would settle a claim for a Partially Damaged Item. If a marquee sustains damage to a panel, and the others along with the frame are all fine and fully functional; We will aim to cover the cost of the replacement panel, rather than the marquee. The Policy would not cover for the replacement value of the whole product unless the item couldn't be repaired. Any settlement value would also be on a like for like basis, not new for old.
